CONTEST OVER GRAND THEATRE

Former Manager Mulvey Claims Money is Due Him.

WANTS $400 FOR SALARY

OTHER SUITS ARE BROUGHT AGAIMST ASSOCIATION.

THE contest between M. E. Mulvey, formerly manager of the New Grand theatre, and the Salt Lake Amusement association, owner of the Grand building, is getting interesting. Some days ago the association sued Mr. Mulvey for $1,200, of which amount $800 was alleged to be due for money received by Mr. Mulvey for the association, and $420 alleged to be due for rent, by reason of his occupancy of the second and third floors of the Grand building.

third floors of the Grand building.
Yesterday Mr. Mulvey filed an answer to this suit in which he denies that he received $800 or any other sam for the use and benefit of the company. As to the $420 claim for rent, Mr. Mulvey sets out that in April, 1901, he moved his family into the Grand building at the special instance and request of the association, in order to protect the insurance policies on the building, and that he owes the association nothing in consequence.

consequence.

Mr. Mulvey then sets up a counter claim for $400, alleging that he was employed as manager of the Grand for sixteen months, from Feb. 9, 1901, to June 9, 1902, at a salary of $100 per month, and that he has only been paid $1,200, leaving a balance of $400 unpaid. In the same connection it is alleged that the association has refused to let him carry out his contract since Dec. 28, 1901.

Mulvey Has Grievance.

But this is not all. Mr. Mulvey and others comprising the Grand Bill Posting company also have a grievance. In a complaint filed against the association, it is set out that the posting company entered into a contract with the association to do all the posting for the theatre from September, 1901, to June, 1902, for $20 and eighty 75-cent tickets per week, but that the association to do all the posting for the children and permanent all-mony, in connection with a decree of divorce.

alleges that he has only received $300, and that he does not know what the association has received in gross receipts from Sept. 1, 1901, to date. An accounting is accordingly asked for from Sept. 1, 1901, to May 7, 1902, and judgment is praxed for 5 per cent of the amount.

Terms of New Agreement.

The new agreement, which is termed the "employer's agreement," grew out of the attitude assumed towards the arbitration committee by the Restaurant Men's association. Because of the light fall of snow in the mountains and the almost assured fact that there will be generally short crops in the farming districts during the coming summer, on account of drouth, local wholesalers are extending only limited credit to their patrons who are dependent upon the products of agriculture to meet their obligations.

It is deemed a matter of business prudence to draw the limit of credit which has heretofore been given the farmers' merchants, because of the anticipated curtailed ability to meet financial obligations after next harvest.
